Your link from Data61 to CSIRO

The Staff Association works to advance the interests of all CSIRO employees including staff in Data61. We're a member driven, not-for-profit organisation that is democratic, open and transparent. Membership fees are affordable and tax deductible.

CSIRO Staff Association members get access to free workplace advice and career assistance. Membership includes access to legal and financial services, insurance coverage for travel to and from work plus discounted goods and services. Members can also apply for scholarships to support additional learning.

As a collective, Staff Association members work to protect working conditions and pay at CSIRO. We also represent the views of staff to the CSIRO Executive, Board, policymakers, Government and in the media.
