

Q1 1. Since March 2020, have you been:

Answered: 387 Skipped: 0

Q2 2. When you are working at home, is your work area set up satisfactorily?

Answered: 387 Skipped: 0

Q3 3. When you are working on site, is there sufficient cleaning, hand sanitiser and distancing?

Answered: 387 Skipped: 0

Q4 4. Working at home is as productive for me as working on site

Answered: 364 Skipped: 23

Q5 5. Working at home has provided flexibility to balance my personal responsibilities

Answered: 364 Skipped: 23

Q6 6. I'd like to work more at home, but my job requires me to work on site

Answered: 366 Skipped: 21

Q7 7. I'd like to work more on site, but I'm following public health advice to work at home

Answered: 366 Skipped: 21

Q8 8. Because I've followed advice to work at home, I've done less experimental work or research

Answered: 358 Skipped: 29

Q9 9. I've worked on site and done more experimental work or research than I normally do

Answered: 360 Skipped: 27

Q10 10. Even if COVID-19 was eliminated in Australia, I would prefer to work at home rather than work on site

Answered: 373 Skipped: 14

Q11 11. I have accessed leave on at least one occasion since March 2020

Answered: 368 Skipped: 19

Q12 12. I don't feel that taking recreation leave would currently give me the break I need

Answered: 368 Skipped: 19

Q13 13. The amount of virtual meetings I'm asked to attend is more than I would like

Answered: 367 Skipped: 20

Q14 14. The virtual meetings I attend are as productive as face-to-face meetings

Answered: 367 Skipped: 20

Q15 15. In my area, effective collaboration can be done through virtual meetings

Answered: 368 Skipped: 19

Q16 16. Overall, I feel my workload has increased

Answered: 366 Skipped: 21

Q17 17. Overall, my work is causing me more anxiety or stress

Answered: 367 Skipped: 20

Q18 18. My work is not causing me more anxiety or stress, but the COVID-19 situation is

Answered: 369 Skipped: 18

Q19 19. I'm satisfied with communications from CSIRO's leaders, nationally and by Business Unit and site

Answered: 369 Skipped: 18

Q20 20. I have concerns about achieving my project milestones and/or Annual Performance Agreement (APA) objectives?

Answered: 366 Skipped: 21

